BOLDERBOULDER®

In early 1979 we had dreams that we might attract a few hundred of our friends to race through the streets of Boulder and celebrate Memorial Day with our families. Forty years later the BOLDERBOULDER is one of the largest and most highly acclaimed road races in the world. Over 1.3 million racers, joggers, walkers and spectators of all ages and descriptions answered the call “Oh Yes You Can” and have gathered over the years on Memorial Day weekend to create a spectacle that defies description. Olympic medal winners and hopefuls, grandmothers and kids, rapid-regional enthusiasts and national one-race-a-year guests all come together at the foot of the Rocky Mountains to form one of sport’s truly unique events.

Our dream continues and has taken on a life that we never quite envisioned but that rewards us every year beyond measure. We hope that you will join us in our journey to celebrate fitness and our country, our community and the heartfelt lifestyle of our extended running family.

Intro

The BOLDERBOULDER is a 10k road race through the streets of Boulder, Colorado. While the race itself has been held on Memorial Day weekend for the last 42 years, its impact lasts far beyond the three-day weekend. The race is the fifth largest in the United States and seventh largest in the world.

Tens of thousands of runners of all capabilities participate in the race, making it one of the largest participatory races in the country. The BOLDERBOULDER is recognized regionally as an integral part of the Denver/Boulder metroplex, which is known for its active lifestyle and trendsetting demographics. A history of innovation and relentless pursuit of improvement has made the event one of the planet's premier road races.

The event also hosts one of the largest Memorial Day tributes in the nation for participants, spectators and the Front Range community. More than 100,000 people line the course and fill the University of Colorado's Folsom Field at the finish line to cheer on the racers and celebrate Memorial Day. The race is televised on KMGH live from 11am to 12:30pm on race day, and in a one-hour feature on Altitude Sports that will air the following week.

The Front Range boasts a world-class field of literally the fastest runners on the planet, a large percentage of whom represent their countries in the Olympics. The BOLDERBOULDER International Team Challenge is the largest and most competitive event of its kind outside of the Olympics. This professional race is the largest international road-racing team competition held annually in the United States.

The race has been awarded many accolades from the media. Runner's World named the race, "America's All-Time Best 10K."

Timeline | The First 42 Years of Innovation

History, 1979-2022

- › Steve Bosley, President of The Bank of Boulder, at the suggestion of Olympic Gold Medalist Frank Shorter, decides to create and host a road race in Boulder, CO.
- › Over 2,700 runners register making it one of the largest first-time races in Colorado.
- › Ric Rojas – men's winner; Sandy Simmons – women's winner.

1980

- › The finish line is moved to Boulder High School's track to accommodate the 5,280 person field.

1981

- › At the request of CU President Arnold Weber and Athletic Director Eddie Crowder, the finish line is moved to the University of Colorado's Folsom Field Stadium to accommodate the growing number of participants and spectators.
- › In 1981, Corporate and Family Team competitions were also introduced. Corporate teams compete for category awards and families can choose to compete against other families for time and age placement awards.
- › Frank Shorter won the race.

- › First year of the wave start. Runners divided into groups based on predicted finish times and launched with staggered starting times.

1984

- › First year of the separate pro men's and pro women's race following the citizen's race so the citizen finishers could watch the pro finishes in the University of Colorado's stadium.
- › TV covered the women's race separately for the first time.

1988

- › The race hosted the Men's National 10k Championship. It was the first time that a national competition had been held in conjunction with the BOLDERBOULDER.

1990

- › Inauguration of the separate professional Push Rim race.
- › BOLDERBOULDER also hosted the Women's National 10k Championship.

1991

- › Host to both the Men's and Women's High Altitude National 10k Championships, the first time in the U.S. the men's and women's races had been contested at a single event.

1994

- › The inaugural year of the Colorado Cup, awarded to the first male and female finishers of the citizen's race.
- › Second time the Men's and Women's High Altitude National 10k Championships were held at the event.

1995

- › Josephat Machuka sets all-time course record at 27:52.

1996

- › The Middle School Challenge is introduced. Middle School students train with their teachers and pro athletes during the Spring semester and compete against other area schools for prizes.

1997

- › The 1997 race focused on the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Frank Shorter's marathon Gold Medal victory at the 1972 Olympics. Frank and some of his old teammates and training partners ran in a special wave called the "Legends Run."
- › BOLDERBOULDER raised money to dedicate a life-sized statue of Shorter on the CU Campus.

1998

- › The 20th Running of the BOLDERBOULDER was the first year of the International Team Challenge. A record 26 countries raced. The International Team Challenge features a criterium lap course which starts and finishes inside Folsom Field.

2000

- › BOLDERBOULDER Memorial Day Back Bibs are introduced to honor members and veterans of the United States Military.
- › Buff Vision premiers in the CU Stadium, allowing more than 40,000 spectators to watch CBS-TV's live coverage of the professional races from inside of the stadium.

2001

- › International Team Challenge course modified to include a lap through Folsom Field.
- › Public Service Division is added to the Citizen's Team Challenge.

2002

- › 3 Congressional Medal of Honor recipients are honored by Senator Wayne Allard during the Memorial Day Tribute.
- › Jog and Walk/Jog divisions added to the race.
- › The American women took first place with an almost-perfect score of 1-2-4 in the International Team Challenge.

2003

- › 25th running of the BOLDERBOULDER.
- › Commemorative finisher's medals for everyone crossing the finish line in Folsom Field.
- › Congressional Medal of Honor recipient George Sakato was honored and his citation read by Senator Wayne Allard.

Boulder Facts

- A 1992 Survey by the Centers for Disease Control found that Colorado had fewer overweight people per capita and more people who exercise than any other state.
- Boulder became the first city in the US, in 1967, to tax itself for funds to be used specifically for the acquisition, management and maintenance of Open Space.
- Among 14 comparable cities, Boulder ranks Number 1 in people who walk to work, work at home and drive with more than one person in the car. It ranks second among those who bike.
- Baseline Road is a significant east-west route to both Boulderites and cartographers, because it marks the 40th parallel on world maps.
- Boulder's third Flatiron towers 1,400 feet high, a few hundred feet higher than the Empire State Building.
- The buildings at the University of Colorado at Boulder are built with red sandstone, quarried in nearby Lyons.

THE BOLDERBOULDER COMMITMENT

Since 1979, the BOLDERBOULDER has been passionate about the race, the community and our stewardship of the environment.

This effort is not just reserved for Memorial Day. It's something we pursue 365 days a year.

Our commitment to do what's right has led us on a journey which will never end. This is a road that we are proud to be on, and happy to have you running, walking or wheeling by our side.

A FEW OF THE BOLDERBOULDER BENEFICIARIES

Fitness for Youth

BBRacers Club educates elementary and middle school students about physical fitness in an effort to prevent obesity and motivate students to experience the benefits of an active lifestyle.

One World Running

BOLDERBOULDER is proud to facilitate shoe donations for One World Running. Learn more about this wonderful program: oneworldrunning.com.

CU Cross Country Scholarship

BOLDERBOULDER facilitates and makes donations to the University of Colorado's cross country and track and field programs, benefiting top student athletes in the USA. For every one dollar received, the BOLDERBOULDER donates more than $10.

Non-profit Volunteer Program

BOLDERBOULDER donates funds to dozens of non-profit groups who help us as volunteers on race day.

Economic Implications in Boulder

BOLDERBOULDER generates more than $10 million in direct economic impact to the city of Boulder

250,000

cups composted and diverted from landfill

17.39 tons

of materials from the course and Folsom Field diverted to recycling facilities

1,900

shirts donated globally to humanitarian aid programs

5.27 tons

of food donated to Community Food Share in 2019.

Supply Chain Management

We encourage and work with vendors to bulk pack shipments to reduce packaging waste and weight in transit while saving our volunteers hours of time unwrapping items.

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

90%

International Team Challenge

In 1998, the BOLDERBOULDER International Team Challenge was inaugurated.

Professional runners from all over the world compete on three-person country teams for the second largest non-marathon prize purse in the world. The men's and women's professionals race the main point-to-point BOLDERBOULDER course and finish just before the start of the Memorial Day Tribute.

This Team Challenge is the largest international road racing team competition held annually in the United States.

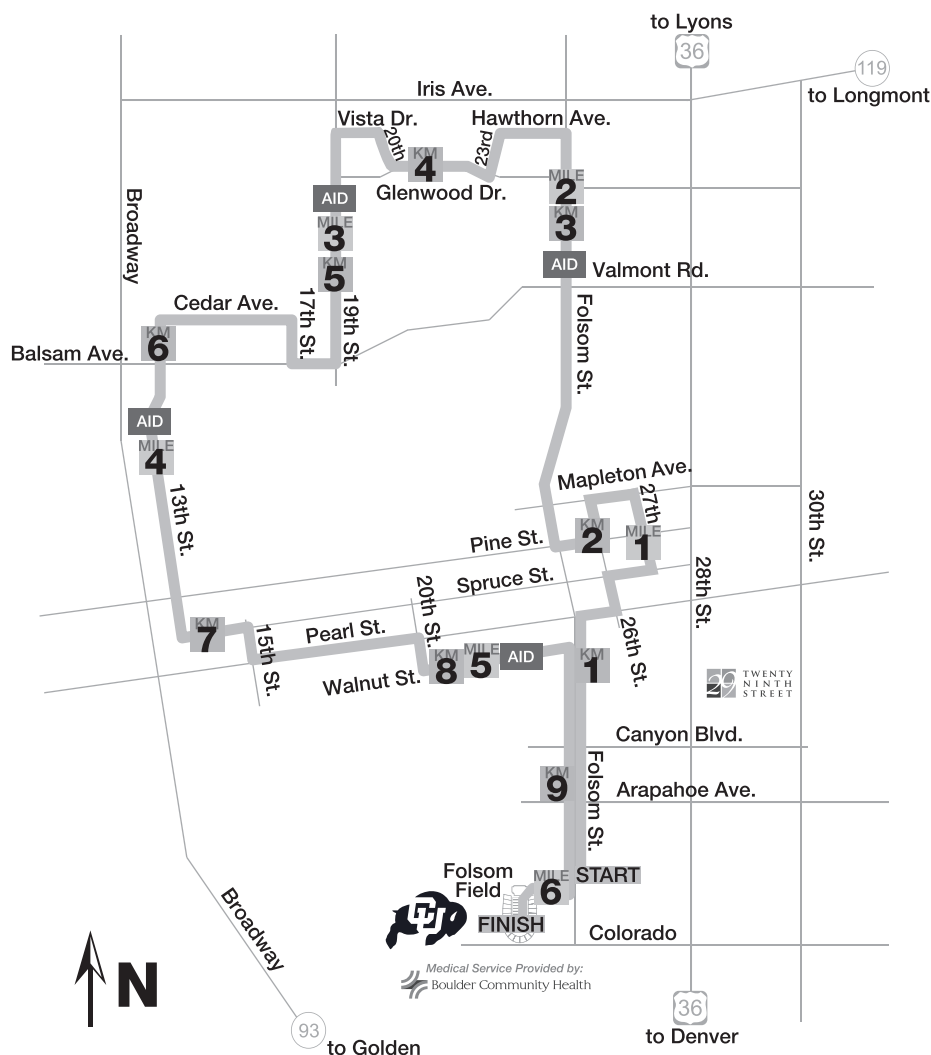

A complete 2022 International Team Challenge Athlete Roster and Professional Athlete Bio Sheet will be available at the press conference on Sunday, May 29 at 11:30am at the Embassy Suites Boulder. All media is invited to attend.

Team Scoring

Women's and men's teams are scored cross-country style with points awarded based on finishing place. The team with the lowest score for both runners is the winner. Ties are decided based on the positions of the 2nd place finisher. The two members of the first place TEAM USA will be made up of the first two USA finishers of the 4 competing. New in 2022 is combined team scoring, with both the women's and men's cumulative times added together, to get the cumulative score for all 4 runners.

The International Team Challenge starts on Folsom Street, near the stadium. After 2K, it will merge with the main BOLDERBOULDER course.

Memorial Day Tribute

An important part of the BOLDERBOULDER 10k road race is to honor the men and women who have served our country during peace and war, particularly those who paid the supreme sacrifice. BOLDERBOULDER's Memorial Day Tribute after the BOLDERBOULDER includes the presentation of the Nation's Colors, a 21-gun salute by a Marine Corps Honor Guard, Taps, Colorado's largest mass-enlistment ceremony, and military sky divers carrying flags from each branch, and the singing of our national anthem. With as many as 50,000 spectators, the BOLDERBOULDER Memorial Day Tribute has become the nation's largest Memorial Day celebration. The Festivities begin in Folsom Field at NOON on Memorial Day.

The Mile-Hi Sky Diving Team will perform their traditional exhibition sky dive to kick off the 42nd BOLDERBOULDER Memorial Day Tribute. All members of the Mile-Hi Sky Diving team are United States Parachuting Association certified professional exhibition jumpers. Throughout their 25-year history with the ceremony the group has varied to include BOLDERBOULDER finishers, military personnel including Air Force Academy officers and Colorado natives.

Once again, a special Memorial Day "back bib" will be available for any participant who would like to run the race in honor of a family member or friend who served in the Armed Forces of the United States. Race Ambassadors will also be handing out the back bibs on race day at the start area and in Folsom Stadium on race day.

Honoring those who have served, the BOLDERBOULDER has dedicated two special waves to those participants who are members or veterans of the United States military. Join us in the "M" wave if you're a runner, or in the "P" wave if you are a jog/walker. Family and friends of the military are also welcome in either of these waves.

Again this year, over 30 midshipmen from the Navy ROTC Unit of the University of Colorado will be running the race in formation in honor of their fellow servicemen.

Combat Logistics Battalion 453, stationed on Buckley Space Force Base in Aurora will provide the 21-Gun Salute. The presentation of colors will be by the Navy and Marines of the NROTC Unit at CU. Mr. Dave McLoughlin and Mr. Bill Wilkinson will play Taps. A video of Stewart Boone playing the National Anthem will be aired in the Stadium and on Denver 7.

BOLDERBOULDER Satellite Races at Overseas Military Locations

In 2006 the BOLDERBOULDER created the BOLDERBOULDER Baghdad 10K with the help of a group of dedicated runners stationed at Camp Victory in Iraq. The race was run on Memorial Day and gave service men and women a connection to the tens of thousands of BOLDERBOULDER runners competing on the same morning. With 601 finishers it became the largest race in Iraq. In 2007 the BOLDERBOULDER 10K was run in Balad, Kuwait and aboard the USS NIMITZ (on treadmills). In 2008 the USS NIMITZ again hosted a treadmill version of the BOLDERBOULDER 10K. In 2009 the BOLDERBOULDER was run in Kuwait and Baghdad, Iraq. Approximately 500 participants finished each race. In 2022, 2,100 military runners will run their own BOLDERBOULDER races on five U.S. bases.

Media Contacts

The race day media coordinator for the 43rd BOLDERBOULDER is David Plati (Assistant AD/Media Relations at the University of Colorado: (303/492-5626, 303/494-0445 home, 303/944-7272 cell); he will be assisted by Linda Sprouse (office, 303/492-5980, cell, 612/701-0054). BOLDERBOULDER contacts are race director Cliff Bosley (303/444-7223 x 114 office, 303/263-1159 cell), Don Janicki (pro athlete coordinator, 720/626-9358) and executive race director Steve Bosley (303/817-1583 cell). Plati coordinates race day media at the site.

Credentials

Media credentials for the 40th BOLDERBOULDER permit members of the media access to the finish area, the media tent on the Folsom Field floor, and the post-race press conference at the club level seating area (Club Level - access anytime after noon). Access is not permitted to the pro athlete locker rooms, and drug testing area, the results area and the weight room. In addition, a press credential does not guarantee seating on any of the press trucks; request a space in advance.

Press, Hospitality & Interview Area

The CU athletic media relations office (Fieldhouse Annex) is available for reporters to work from after the completion of the final team race. The AMR office will also serve as the main area for results. Interviews can take place in the PR tent (just west of the finish line on the stadium floor, see Winslow-Sell or Plati) and at Club Level (stadium club seating) after 12:20pm. Those who wish to watch the race instead of riding the press trucks can do so in the stadium on BuffVision.

Transportation to Start Line from Stadium

The Green Ride bus will provide transport from the stadium to the start of the A Wave. It will leave promptly at 6:10am from Gate 5 at Folsom Field, which will bring any one who wishes to park early on campus.

Interviews

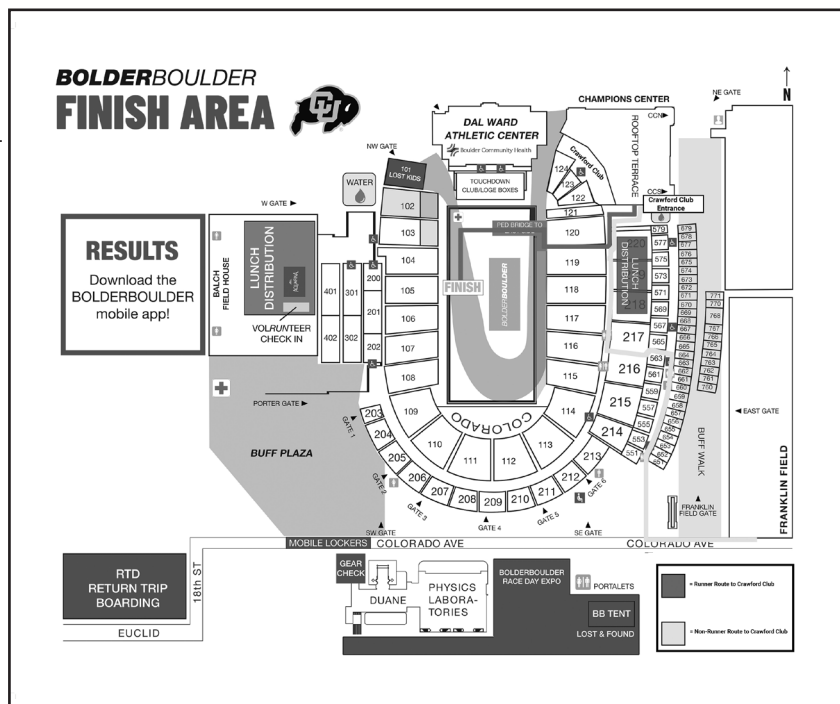

Interviews will take place at the post-race press conference in Club Level at 12:45pm. This will feature the winning teams (male and female), top individual(s) if not represented on the winning team, and anyone deemed a compelling story. At all other times, athletes are available for interviews at their own discretion.

Results

BOLDERBOULDER results will be sent electronically to outlets that requested them in advance. Pro results will be available at Club Level 5 post race press conference and the CU Athletic media relations office, and can be faxed upon request Monday afternoon. The contacts for electronic results for BOLDERBOULDER is Bryan Lauer (303-917-4004 cell). Individual results will be posted on the Internet (www.bolderboulder.com) by 10pm Monday night.

Clear Bag

We will be enforcing CU's Clear Bag Policy at Folsom Field. All media trying to bring a backpack or gear into the stadium will need to go through one of the two staff entrances to have their bag tagged and checked. Reminder, no one will be allowed to enter the stadium secured area until after 5:30am race morning. Again, credentials must be presented. AT 7:00am the stadium area will be allowing non-credentialed individuals in.

BOLDERBOULDER – THE TRADITION RETURNS MEMORIAL DAY 2022 – OH YES YOU CAN

BOLDER, CO – APRIL 18, 2022: One of Colorado's signature events returns when the BOLDERBOULDER 10K resumes its traditional Memorial Day event after a two-year absence caused by Covid-19.

The race will be on Memorial Day, Monday, May 30. Registration for participants can be found at www.bolderboulder.com

The first BolderBoulder in three years and the 42nd running of the event is cause for celebration, says Race Director Cliff Bosley.

"We couldn't be more excited to bring back this great tradition that is embraced by so many in our community, the state and beyond," Bosley said. "We've missed our participants and our spectators and we know they've missed us. It's great to be back with this fantastic outdoor community event."

Bosley said the race's return is testament to the hard work, collaboration and coordination of the BOLDERBOULDER, the City of Boulder, CU Boulder and many additional partners and entities. "Having to cancel the race the past two years gave us important perspective on just how much the BolderBoulder means to our participants, our spectators and the community," Bosley said. "It's like reconnecting with a great friend you haven't seen lately."

In addition to the 10K event, the BolderBoulder is a remembrance of the more than 1.3 million men and women in the Armed Forces who made the supreme sacrifice in defending America's freedoms. It also celebrates veterans and those now serving in the Armed Forces. It provides one of the largest Memorial Day tributes in the country.

This year's race will also honor the 50th anniversary of Frank Shorter's Olympic gold medal-winning run in the marathon at the Olympics in Munich in 1972. Shorter has been named the Official Starter of the 2022 BolderBoulder. He will launch more than 80 waves of competitors. In 1981, Shorter won the race, becoming the first of 1,381,060 participants (over 40 years) to cross the finish line at Folsom Field on the University of Colorado campus. The event first finished in the stadium in 1981 and has done so ever since.

Bosley said the wave start, created and pioneered by the BolderBoulder, spaces out participants by design, adding to the safety of the outdoor event. The A wave (the first to start) is scheduled to begin at 6:55 a.m. and the final wave is expected to start around 9:20 a.m.

We felt this event's absence due to COVID-19 and are delighted to welcome locals and visitors back to Boulder," said Boulder City Manager Nuria Rivera-Vandermyde. "The BOLDERBOULDER is a Memorial Day tradition, a rite of passage from spring to summer and a community-defining event that brings us together to showcase the best of Boulder and the University of Colorado."

CU Boulder Chancellor Phil DiStefano said CU Boulder is excited to see the event's return. "CU Boulder and the BolderBoulder have been great partners for several decades on this community-wide race and celebration," he said. "We are as delighted as anyone to see it return and we're thrilled to have it once again finish on our campus."
